I wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Morgan Family, which is from my Fathers line. This book is of my line of Morgans, which connect to my Boone and Wilcoxson lines. Info on those lines in their own books. This book has the line of Morgans from Maxine Parker to the beginning.

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct. Cmpiled by Gladys (Lowe) Treadway 1969-2018

Dear Gladys,

It has been such a long time since our last correspondence I may need to re-introduce myself. After sending you the confusing information on the Morgan families I have spent a great deal of time in correspondence and research trying to obtain accurate information.

I believe I now have in the computer what is generally accepted to be our line. My references came from quarterlies, books, cousins, especially Jo Bush and her nephew who have spent years in research, Betty Ethel, who lives here and is a descendant of Daniel Boone, and various copies of documents that have been forwarded to me. Much of the information on the lines prior to Edward Morgan were obtained from Michel Call's book "Royal Ancestors of some American Families", and from research done by Jo and her nephew Guy Griffen. In comparing information received from these two sources I have found a few discrepancies, but not many, and it is difficult to decide which to go with. Also, I had to question a few dates in Michel Call's book, and in some instances I have left the dates out. However, I know that many children of royal families were married at a very early age, although the marriage was not consummated until a later date.

I have run a pedigree chart for you using Elizabeth, daughter of John Wilcoxson and Sarah Boone as the first generation. The number that follows each name is my "Record Identification No.", and the number following marriage date is my "Marriage Record Identification No.". If you want to discuss any of my entries it will help if I know the "RIN" or "MRIN"

As to the lines I previously mailed to you concerning Robert de Vere, Cadivar-Fawr and Cynedd, I have dropped these as I cannot find proof, however the line to Edward III researched by Jo Bush is accurate and documented. *

If you have information other than what is contained in your pedigree chart I would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

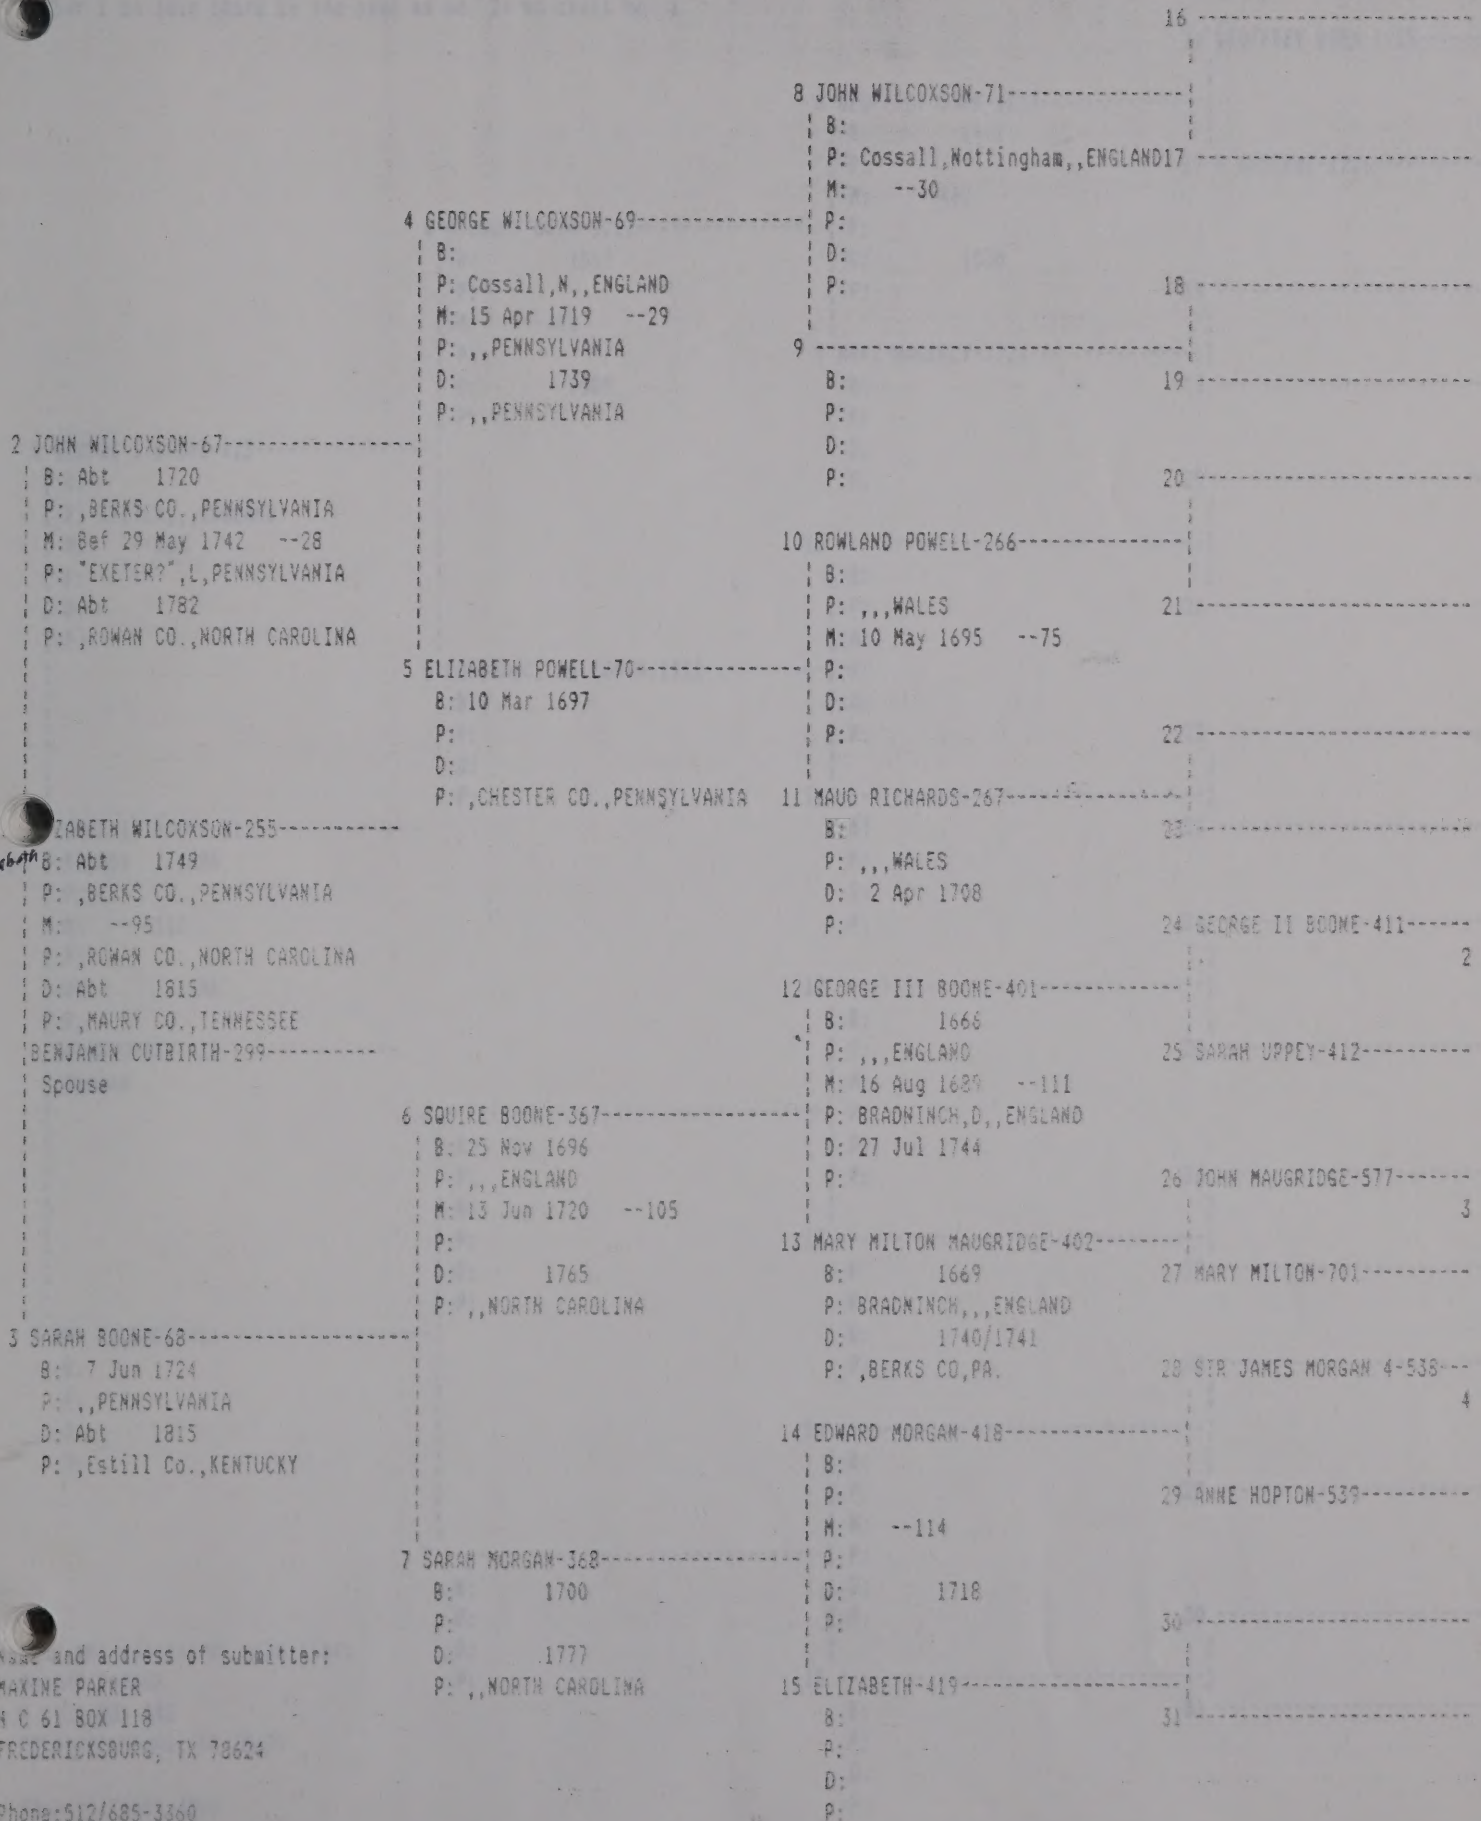

Maxine

* Exception - As you will see on your chart, James Morgan is son of Edward Morgan & Mary Lutfield (not as shown on chart originally mailed to you. mp)

Dear Gladys;

Thank you for your letter and the Morgan information. The name Evan is familiar in my Morgan line. Peter Morgan, my 99 grandfather, had a brother named Evan.

I have a suggestion which may or may not benefit you. The Morgans were Welsh. I notice some of your progenitors were in Bucks Co. PA. There was a record in Bucks Co. PA. that showed my Peter Morgan and a Gabriel Van Horn were arrested there for trespass. I do not know what that trespass referred to.

My Peter Morgan married a Mary Van Landt. We have a record of a Gabriel Van Horn married a Mary Van Landt, and they had one daughter Charity. I suspect Gabriel Van Horn died and Peter Morgan married his widow, because there is a record of the first child of Mary Van Landt and Peter Morgan was named Charity. This is just supposition and I have little more to go on.

Paul Morgan has some Victory information on his and my Morgan.

I sent him $25.00 and I was amazed at the information he sent. He has searched the Morgans for as many if not more than I have. If you care to send him copies of the Morgan information you have, he may be able to help you. However, he and his lovely wife are vacationing this summer. He may not answer soon but do not give up. If you offer to send $25.00 for the Morgan information which I purchased, I'm sure you will be most pleased. He may have some restrictions on your making copies this I do not know.

His name is Paul Morgan,
Route 1 Box 1173, Athens, TX. 75751. I will keep your Morgan information in my file and if I should find some related information
I will contact you.

Happy Hunting

Dear Gladys,

Enclosed you will find the information I promised on the ancestral homes of the Morgans, which would also include your connection with Sarah Morgan-Boone.

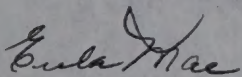

I was born in Adams County, Iowa and later graduated from Creston, Iowa. Have many relatives in that area, including a brother and a sister-in-law. Lived in Iowa till 1954 when we moved to California.

Checked over your pedigree sheets and mostly correct, but to be honest not sure if we will ever know the actual dates of most of them. But do agree with you that its more important to getting the direct lines right.

But others have questioned Edward Morgan's birth date as being before 1670 for his son William bought over 200 acres in 1711 which means he must have been born before 1690 to have acquired that kind of money. And I agree for what I do know is that history books state 1st boat load of Welsh Quakers landed on American soil 1682 and it is thought Edward came in 1683. According to the sister in Wales he could not have left his family as a child, it would not have been allowed. Second he had already embraced the Quaker faith before leaving Wales, which meant he was an adult probably in late twenties. So my theory is he was born about 1655-60. But guess it will always be one of our mysteries.

Will keep your letter and information on file as one never knows what will come across your desk later.

Sincerely,

Eula M. Long

Notes

HUSBAND - Edward Morgan I

BIRTH: Most sources have listed his birthplace as Wales and some had said his family were Quakers but one source said they were Roman Catholic. They were Quakers when first in America in PA along with other Quaker families so maybe they changed when coming here or that was the reason for coming. His birthdate has been listed as abt 1670 if married by 1690 or both dates could be a little earlier. If Edward and his wife Elizabeth came to America in 1683 they would have md before 1690 and in Wales? That is unless the statement only meant that they came on the same ship but were not married at that time. At least Edward would have been close to age 18-21 and on his own if coming alone. That would account for an earlier birth then 1670 as well.

Husband	Edward Morgan I
Wife	Elizabeth Robertson?
Notes HUSBAND - Edward Morgan I (Continued) Info from Several sources, Boone Books, Wilcoxson Books and research done. These sources have stated Edward's wife was Elizabeth Robertson (Roberson). One other source said wife was Elizabeth Jarman, dau of John Research done on internet by Stewart Baldwin 1998 stated he thought there was a problem with wives of Edward Sr & Jr. and he stated he thought the wife of Edward Morgan Sr. should be Elizabeth Jarman dau of John Jarman (Quaker of PA). He says this comes about by locating a new daughter, Mary of Edward Morgan Sr. and thus believing the mother was Elizabeth Jarman. GT- If this were so then the generations would be off (possible there were 2 generations of Jarman's and Morgan's close in same area) and some have listed wife of Edward Jr as Margaret Jarman although no proof has been located, still there was a lot of confusion between the two Edwards in records, which may account for the wives maiden not known for sure. He also states Edward was not the son of Sir James Morgan as others have so stated. (Oct 2004) This I believe would be correct. Also info from William Scroggins papers off the internet Sep 1999. He stated Edward and Elizabeth Morgan was of Towamencin Twp in Philadelphia (now Montgomery) Co. PA. The parents of Edward have not been proved but have been said to be Sir James Morgan 4th Baronet of Llantarnam in Monmouthshire (now Gwent), Wales and his first wife Ann Hopton of Canon Frome. Edwards wives maiden name also has not been proved and he does not list a surname for her. This info under Squire Boones papers. PARENTS: It has now been researched and according to Stewart Baldwin (internet site-Oct 2004) that Edwards parents are not Sir James Morgan by several reasonings. Probably first and foremost when Sir James died he did not have sons since at this death the Baronetcy became extinct after his death. It is believed he had no wife other then Lady Alice Hopton widow of Nicholas Jones who she married 17 Apr 1683 according to parish records of Canon Frome, Co. Hereford, England. She then married "Jacobus Morgan, miles et Barrt. 27 Oct 1695 and apparently Jacobus was same person as Sir James Morgan, 4th Baron of Llantarnum. SO WHO ARE THE PARENTS OF EDWARD MORGAN? He also had put some info from the Morgan family as well. Edward b. ca 1670 Wales and died after 1732 Philadelphia Co. PA. and married abt 1686 to Elizabeth. I would think if he was md 1686 and came to America by 1684 he would have been born before 1670 as would have been 16 if md 1686 and men weren't known to be married that young then. An article about the Morgan House stated Edward came to America with his young wife in 1683, which would make him 13 if b. 1670. CHILDREN: There is a slight difference opinion of who their children are as well: Stewart Baldwin listed children as: William, Edward, John, Daniel, Margaret, Morgan, Alice, Deborah, Sarah, Mary, and Joseph. (from interent Oct 2004). (11 children) Other sources have listed his children as: Elizabeth, Daniel, William, Margaret, Edward, Morgan, Alice, Sarah, John, Joseph, Mary, Deborah and possible David b. 1709 PA. (12-13 children?) William Scroggins work, again from internet listed 10 children for them: Elizabeth, Edward, Margaret, William, Alice, Daniel, Morgan, Sarah, John and Joseph and all marriages same as other sources. He says Edwards parents have not been proved but he has been identified as the son of Sir James Morgan, 4th Baronet of Llantarnam (which every book so far has stated). No maiden name for Elizabeth. William's info stated Edward Morgan and his wife Elizabeth, both free, arrived at Philadelphia on the same ship " Evening Star" from Liverpool in the 9th mo 1683. Does this mean they were married or both on the same ship? As this would make a big difference on the whole situation of the family. Edward first appeared in America on the Blackwell Rent Roll in the 1680's and having children with recorded birthdates as early as 1691. Edward first bought land in 1684 in Philadelphia and by 1704 he bought land in Gwynedd and 1708 bought land in what is now Towamencin from Griffith Jones. In 1714 he bought 500 acres land from George Claypoole of Philadelphia, PA. So if he bought land in 1684 he would have to have been over 21 years of age? It was said sons Morgan, Daniel, Joseph and John each received 200 acres of Towamencin property when they were married. William purchased 250 acres in Montgoemry Twp in 1711 and John and Joseph moved to Winchester, VA in 1741. Was also stated the child James was a daughter Jane? But one source has a son James for Edward and

Notes HUSBAND - Edward Morgan I (Continued) Elizabeth but not a Jane, no other listed a son James. He was witness for a marriage in 1690 at Radnor Meeting House and also in 1694. Short History of counties in PA: Which may clarify some of the boundries in PA. Radnor Twp formed ca 1684 from Philadelphia co., currently in Delaware Co. Kulpsville, Towamencin Twp, formed in 1728, originally in Philadelphia co, currently in Montgomery Co. Hatfield Twp formed in 1742, from both Lansdale Borough in Hatfield Twp and Norristown Borough in Norriton Twp and was in Philadelphia Co. Hatfield Twp. is currently in Montgomery Co. Montgomery Co. formed 10 Sep 1784 from Philadelphia Co. Delaware Co. formed 26 Sep 1789 from Chester Co. WIFE - Elizabeth Robertson? Some sources have said Elizabeth Robertson md Edward Morgan but others say her maiden name has not been proven so not for sure. It is possible they were married before coming to America about 1683 in Wales Also stated her name was Elizabeth (and maybe Jarman?) according to Stewart Baldwin who has done a lot of research on the Morgan line as have others. CHILD 1 - Elizabeth Morgan Info on Elizabeth from other sources but most info on husband and children from Stewart Baldwin internet site (Oct 2004) Listed last two as probable children of theirs. CHILD 2 - Daniel Morgan Birth date 1691 and md date new date 2 Sep 1718, old date before that. CHILD 3 - William Morgan Interent site of Steward Baldwin stated William died before 29 Jul 1741, md 1st 27 8 mo 1713 Haverford MM PA to Elizabeth Roberts and md 2nd 7 10mo 1731 Gwynedd MM PA to Catharine Robeson. His children were all by his first wife. 1st mg date would be 27 Aug in our date but old date earlier 2nd mg date would be 7 Oct in our date but old date earlier CHILD 5 - Edward Morgan II Edward Jr died before his father Edward Sr. 1718 Md Margaret (some have said Jarman) others no surname listed. She md 2nd Rees David in 1719 and moved to Upper Dublin Twp. Edward and Margaret had at least 3 children: Hannah, Miriam & Enoch according to info from Stewart Baldwin. One other source said had no children. He apparently died interstate in 1718. The administrator's report filed by his widow Margaret in 1719 stated that he owned no land but had six acres of wheat in the ground and some housekeeping equipment. CHILD 6 - Morgan Morgan Morgan's will listed brothers Joseph, John and James. His will dated 20th day of 01st month 1727. Contained bequests to his wife Dorothy as a legatee and executrix/ 2 sons, Edward & Jesse, brother Joseph and his mother (not named), als specific bequests to Margaret Morgan, John Thomas, William Morris, Walter Evans, Eleanor Wright, Elizabeth, dau of his brother John and a servant boy named Joseph Griffith. Overseers were _____ -- Morgan, Cadwallader Morris & William Jenins and witnesses wre john Jones and Cadwallader Morris.

CHILD 9 - Sarah Morgan
Sarah thought to be 8th child of Edward and Elizabeth Robertson Morgan. Birth has been recorded as 1700 and marriage date 1720.
One source said she was born in Philadelphia Co. PA (now Montgomery Co.)
Sarah was said to have been a tall robust woman with black hair and black eyes.
After the death of Squire, Sarah went to live with her daughter Mary Bryan. Believed to live close to where they had lived, in Mocksville, Davie Co. NC.
Much has been written on Sarah Morgan and husband Squire Boone. They had at least 11 children, the Famous Hunter Daniel Boone being the 6th child.
Sarah and Squire Boone left PA after 11 Apr 1750 at which time they conveyed their farm of 158 acres of land in the Township of Exeter to William Maudridge, May 1750 (date registered).
Sarah and Squire are buried in the Joppa cemetery in Mocksville, NC and some info has been written in the Davie Co. History of NC on them.
Sarah and Squire were Quakers. Squire was a weaver and blacksmith in trade.
Sarah's older brother Daniel Morgan was a traveling Quaker minister.
Also some info was sent from Jolene Morgan Boyer 1991 who said info came from a chart at the Morgan Log House, Kulpville, PA.
Book on the Boone Family by Hazel Spraker.
Book "Drums of Towamencin" has Morgan info.
Info from Maxine Parker of Fredericksburg, TX, as well as others working on the Boone/Wilcoxson/Morgan families.
Several other books on Daniel Boone and the Boone and Morgan families.
Info from William Scroggins Papers off the internet Sep 1999. He listed her birth place as Philadelphia Co. where others have said Berks Co. PA. He also stated she died Rowan Co. and they were living in Davie Co. NC at the time.
CHILD 10 - John Morgan
The info on this family came from Stewart Baldwin internet info. Needs more work done.
John and Sarah was listed w 4 children Elizabeth?, Morgan, William and Sarah?.
Other sources listed John as son of Edward and Elizabeth who md Sarah Lloyd dau of Thomas Lloyd.

Notes

HUSBAND - Squire Boone

Short History of PA counties:

Bucks, Chester and Philadelphia Counties formed in Nov of 1682, being at that time the original counties in PA. They remained the only counties in PA through 1728.

Lancaster Co. was formed from Chester Co. on 10 May 1729.

Oley Twp was formed in 1740 while part of Philadelphia Co.

Exeter Twp was formed in 1741 while part of Philadelphia Co. and can only be assumed as being from Oley Twp.

Berks Co. formed 11 Mar 1752 from Lancaster, Chester and Philadelphia Counties, PA.

BIRTH: has been recorded as 1696 and was said bapt. 25 Dec 1697 at St Disens church, Bradninch, Exeter, Devonshire, England. But actual Bradninch records listed 25 Dec 1696 as baptized.

Squire was a strong wiry man of rather small stature with ruddy complexion and red hair and gray eyes.

MARRIAGE: Date 23 Sep 1720 was the Quaker date they were married. The licence from Gwynedd Meeting House in PA. After their marriage they moved to Exeter twp, Berks Co., PA. 13 Jun 1720 would be as of todays calender. The licence states 7th month, 23 1720. Squire was of Philadelphia Co. and Sarah of county where Gwynedd was located. (Berks? Co.) Several witness given their hand at the wedding, family of Boones, Morgans and others. Could have been married Philadelphia Co. PA as was said that is where Sarah was from.

HUSBAND - John Wilcoxson (Wilcox)

No proof to date that John is son of George, however all book references have stated so. John married Sarah Boone, sister to Daniel Boone in PA, possibly Lancaster Co. 29 May 1742, according to records Sarah married out of Quaker faith and was pregnant with a first child when married. John died about 1798 in Davie Co. NC. Several different dates have been written for his death. DAR list 1798 and have reason to believe that is correct as was records in Davie Co. until about that time. Others have said 1782 in KY, 1793 also in NC. Not sure he was ever in KY? Draper collection has listed first son David, other books have listed other children. Believed they had 12 children. There are 12 children listed in DAR records for John and Sarah. Where was he buried? Joppa cem in Davie Co.?

Notes	HUSBAND - John Wilcoxson (Wilcox) (Continued) Was the first child, John's as it was said John was living with the Boones before they were married? John has been listed as having 12 children, some sources listed 13, Nancy being b. 17 Mar 1744-45 d. 20 Oct 1790 Wilkes Co. NC. Draper Collection Manuscript C 1 pg 24 states Sarah was pregnant in 1742. DAR papers of Maxine Parker #717614 list ancestors services during the Rev. War as follows: Defended Ruddle's and Martin's Fort in Kentucky, also Bryan's Station. Was in the battle of Bryans Station in August 1782. Supplemental papers #443815 of Edna Early Thomas and also #684152 of Wilma Jo Bush who all went into DAR under service of John Wilcoxson Sr. Also stated a Soldier acting in the capacity of Patriot and Indian Fighter, defender of the frontier in North Carolina, Virginia and Kentucky. Other references were "Wilcoxson and Allied Families" by Dorothy Wulfreck, pages 11,15,33 and 58. Maxine's papers listed the birth date as 1720 and death date as 1782 of John. Other place in same papers death date listed as 26 Feb 1798 Rowan Co. NC. Book "Wilcoxson and Allied Families" by Dorothy Wulfreck pub 1958 gives much info on John and family. Have copy of pages 18 thru 27. (These pages mostly on Cutbirth and Callaway families, little on Wilcoxson pg 18.) Other info from the book by Wulfreck was on land records and reference to their marriage. Pg 11--Abstracts of marriage certificate "Exeter Monthly Meeting in PA: 5-29-1742 "Sarah, daughter of Squire Boone, treated with marring out" 5-29-1742 "Sarah Boone married out of Unity with friends appointed to speak with father." 6-26-1742 "Squire Boone declareth he did not contenance or concent to the marriage but confesseth himself in fault in keeping them in his house after their keeping company but that he was in a great straight in not knowing what to do and hopeth to be more careful for the future." Book by Estelle Bass Cosby pub. 1980 gives much on John Wilcoxson, some on his father and grandfather. Have pages 106 thru 111. 1759 in North Carolina according to tax lists of 10-08-1761: Isaac Wilcockson, John Wilcockson and son George; Benjamin Cutbeard, Michael Beem, Peter Beem. NC 1761: Thomas Stillwell's List: Isaac Wilcocdkson, John and son George wilcockson, John wilcockson Jr, John Cook and Benjamin Cutbeard. NC 1768 List: John Willicokson, Isaac Wolcokson and David Wilcocks. NC 1772 Johnston's Dist: David, Isaac and George Wilcoxson. NC 1772 Lyon's Dist: John, John Jr, and George Wilcoxson. NC 1778: George, John, John Jr, Isaac and George Wilcoxson. Believe went to KY in 1779 and was at Boonesborough at least thru 1782 as they were listed as residents there and info accepted by the Society of Boonesborough from research done by French Tipton. NC 1782: George, John, and John Jr. Wilcoxson. NC 1787: George Wilcockson 1 male 21-60 0 males under 21, 1 female; George Jr, John, Samuel and William Wilcockson. 1790 Tax list Rowan Co.: William, John Sr. and John Jr. Wilcoxson. John Sr. 1 white male over 16 and 1 white male under 16 and 1 white female. Rowan Co. NC deed books give deeds of John Wilcockson over a period of more then 10 years so proves he was not killed at Bryants Station KY 1780-82 as some descendants have stated.

Notes

HUSBAND - Benjamin Cutbirth SR.

Name has been written many different ways besides Cutbirth, Cutbeard as well and could be a variation of Cuthbert? Some descendants have use the spelling of Cutberth and Cutburth as well.

Birth Place hs been listed as Orange Co/Augusta Co. VA/ PA 1740 - 1738.

One internet site located on worldconnect.rootsweb from a Mary Kay Armstrong listed Benjamin's parents as Benjamin Sr and Mary Boone, which no one has ever found before. No more info on either however. She also stated Benjamin md Elizabeth Wilcoxson and was in Rev. War. We know there was a connection with the Boones later but never heard of his mother being one from any of the ones researching Boones or Wilcoxsons or Cutbirths for that matter. (Feb 2007).

Find A Grave internet site listed Benjamin "Big Ben" Cutbirth Jr. birth 1740 PA and death 1817 Maury Co. TN, Southport, Maury Co. TN, Howell Cem. There is a pic of woods with few grave markers you can see but doubt would be Benjamin. He married Elizabeth Grant Willcockson 1745-1819. (they would have been my 5th great grandparents-GLT). Benjamin was a Long Hunter and close friend of Daniel Boone. He married Boone's neice, Elizabeth Willcockson around 1760 in Rowan Co. NC b. 1745 d 1819, and they reared two sons and two daughters in NC and TN. (probably because he was gone so much they had no more children?-GLT) (3 married and had large families and one daughter died at a very young age Children listed as: Daniel Boone Cutbirth Sr. 1862-1838 and Benjamin Cutbirth 1764-1848 (my 4th great grandfather GLT), Mary Jane Cutbirth Calloway 1770-1843. (Jane died young).

Note: Information was from Maury Co. Cemeteries. Southport, Maury Co. TN, Howell Cemetery, GPS (aat/ion): 35. 4486. -87.1314. (copy)

To date we have no info on his parents. If he was Jr his father would have been Sr. but was said he died and Benjamin left home and his mother married again but we have found no proof of that.

Benjamin went on many trips with Daniel Boone and much has been written on some of the trips.

Was Benjamin born in VA or PA 1737-39 or 1740? Has been said Augusta Co. VA but could it have been Orange Co. VA which borders changed in 1738 or could it have been in PA.

1740ca Benjamin was said to have been born in Augusta Co. VA, according to DAR records. Said he was of Scotch Irish descent. His father died when he was young and his mother remarried but have not located to whom or where. Also stated he was born 1737-39 possibly PA and other sources state 1740. Benjamin was said to have been a stout, square man, about 5 ft 10 in. with dark hair and dark complexion and a man of undaunted courage, of great industry and perserverance, an honest and good whig. A man of few words, rather morose and taciturn disposition, according to Dr. James Callaway, as told to Lyman C. Draper. James was a son of daughter Mary Cutbirth and Elijah Callaway.

Husband	Benjamin Cutbirth SR.
Wife	Elizabeth Grant "Betsy" Wilcoxson
Notes	HUSBAND - Benjamin Cutbirth SR. (Continued) 1742ca Elizabeth was said to have been born in Rowan Co. NC by DAR records and The Wilcoxson History by Estille Bass Cosby. 1760ca Benjamin and Elizabeth was said to have married, probably in Rowan Co. NC, but have not located a marriage record. Was stated by DAR records and the Wilcoxson book, according to ages of children, that had been stated thru census records. Benjamin as a young man went to the Boone Settlement on the Yadkin River in Rowan Co. NC where he met and married Elizabeth Wilcoxson, who had earlier came to the area with her parents. 1761 he had arrived in Rowan Co. NC as he was listed in a 10-8-1761 Rowan Co tax list as Benjamin Cutbeard. Exactly where he settled was uncertain but Church records had mentioned him living near Mocksville, in what is Davie Co. now. "Reuben Twaite's" book on Daniel Boone describes Benjamin's entry into the Yadkin Forks region, "At the end of the French and Indian War there arrived a Scotch-Irishman named Benjamin Cutbirth, aged about 23 years. He was a man of good character and a fine hunter. Marrying Elizabeth Wilcoxson, a niece of Daniel Boone, He and Boone went upon long hunts together and attained that degree of comradeship and trust that life in a wilderness camp is almost certain to produce." 1761 also Benjamin Cutbeard listed on Thomas Stillwell's list. 1762/63 Their first known child was believed to be Daniel Boone Cutbirth who descendants said was born in Rowan Co. NC. 1764ca Their 2nd known child was believed to be Benjamin Jr. prob. born in Rowan Co. NC. 1765ca DAR records state daughter Jane was born probably in Rowan Co. NC. Nothing more is known of her. Maybe she died young? 1766/7 Benjamin with others went on a hunting trip to west of the Mississippi River and then went by boat down to New Orleans, LA and back to NC. Daniel Boone was to go with them but changed his mind at the last minute. They were gone about two years. These 4 men were said to be the first Americans to travel overland to the Mississippi. They were John Stuart, brother in law to Daniel Boone, John Baker, James Ward and Benjamin. Much has been written about this trip. As was stated by Dr. James Callaway to Lyman C. Draper. They went westward along a little known Indian trail, crossing the Appalachians and hunting bear and buffalo across southern KY and northern TN. By fall of 1767 they came upon the Mississippi River, becoming the first white man ever to accomplish this feat overland from the East. It is thought they viewed the river near the MO bootheal area then went North up the big river to a tributary, more then likely th Ohio River and in this vicinity they wintered. The next few months were spent descending the Mississippi, encountering many problems. They finally reached New Orleans where they sold their furs, skins and meats at a good price. Being very successful headed for home through the Indian territory, probably the area of Alabama & Mississippi. Their trip home was not without incidence though. Somewhere they were robbed of all their earnings by either Choctaw or Creek Indians and when they reached home, broke, they vowed never again to repeat their trip. 1770ca Their 4th known child, Mary was born probably in Rowan Co. NC. After getting back home Benjamin turned to his family and involving himself in the church. 1771 he welcomed a Moravian Home Missionary, Rev. George Soelle to preach in his home. 1772ca Their 5th known child, Sarah was born. They may have been living in Watauga Co. NC by then. Benjamin also had another minister in his home to preach, Rev. John Mclamore of the Dutchman Creek Congregation. 1773 7 Mar, Benjamin was baptized at 3 Forks Baptist Church by Rev. William Cook in Watauga Co. NC. according to History of Watauga Co. NC. (One source says Eaton Baptist Meeting Place in Rowan Co. Don't think so-GLT) 1773 Few months after he was baptized he was on his way to Kentucky with a band of men led by Daniel Boone. Soon after they left a scouting party was attacked by Indians and after the fighting at Walloon's Ridge was over, five of Boones' men were dead, including his son James. Was stated Benjamin had passed that very spot only hours before looking for a place to make camp for the night, but decided to move on a head of the others. This caused the decision for them to return home but Daniel, Benjamin and Will Grant returned a short time later to bury James Boone. The group soon set out again for Ky reaching Little Hickman Creek in what is now Jessemine Co. where they wintered in a cave where Daniel Boone observed his custom of carving his initials and the year into the cavern wall. (wonder if still there?)

Notes HUSBAND - Benjamin Cutbirth SR. (Continued) 1774? Eaton's Baptist Church (Dutchman's Creek) Record book 1772-1797, Rowan Co. NC (microfilm from Southern Historical Commission, Nashville, TN, abstracted and compiled by Mrs W.O. Absher, G.R.S.) Few listings for Cutbirths. Not sure if year was 1774 or 1775. Pg 1: "At Deep Creek 25 of Sept; at Eatons the 30 Dec; 23 at Ridge Meeting House; 30 at Nicholas Whites; the first of October at Jonathan Boons; the 2 at the fork Meeting House; the 3rd at CUTBEARDS; the 5 at Eatons again - July first 1775 all disappointed the preacher did not come" Pg 12 & 13: "An ill report agst Ebenezer Frost; Daniel Lewis & BENJAMINE CUTBEARD chosen to inquire into matter; Ebenezer Frost suspended from church." (believe between 1777 & 1779). Pg 54 listed under year of 1778. 1775 7 Aug, Elizabeth, his wife was baptized also at 3 Forks Baptist Church. One source listed date as 7 Aug 1774. 1775 Mar Benjamin was back home and preforming routine tasks for the church. 1775 10 Mar was said Benjamin was headed for Kentucky again with a group of seasoned backwoodsmen, led by Daniel Boone on an expedition to cut a great road, through the Kentucky wilderness and to build a fort to protect the settlement. They blazed a trail through Powers Valley and passed through the Cumberland Gap, then widened the old Warrior's Path for about 50 miles before heading west near Hazel Patch. Following an ancient buffalo trace northwest they came upon the Rockcastle River, where they had to cut their way through twenty miles of country covered with dead brush, which according to Felix Walker, the chronicler of the group, "was a difficult and laborious task". They then had to cut through thirty miles of thick cane and reed before eventually reaching their objective, the mouth of the Otter Creek on the South bank of the Kentucky River in April. They had incresed the Wilderness Road and built a fort they called Boonesborough. It was said this journey was not without trouble and on March 24 when they were camped outside what is now Richmond Kentucky they were attacked by Indians. They beat the Indians back but suffered injuries and deaths. It was here that Benjamin was about to be killed by an Indian and Daniel Boone saved his life. It is thought Daniel and Benjamin and others had gone back to NC to bring their families to Kentucky. 1776 Was said to have been living in Watauga Co. NC. Believe they were living in the same area and the new county was established and they became part of the new county. Believe they had lived near Old Field at the time of Rev. War but that was in Wilkes Co. NC. 1777 Many more Indian attacks on the fort in Ky and DANiel was wounded at one time. The settlers suffered through a salt shortage so severe they drafted a petition to Congress asking the government to take over the salt licks owned by individuals so that the salt could be evenly distrubuted to everyone. This petition was signed by, among others, Daniel Boone, Richard Callaway, Benjamin Cutbirth, Benjamin Logan and George Clark (bro to Wm Clark of Lewis & Clark). 1778 More attacks on the fort, encouraged by the British and at one time around this Daniel and others were taken prisoner's at a raid at the Salt Licks. (not sure of date). Also about this time was when Richard Callaway started court martial for treason against Daniel Boone. During the trial Benjamin Cutbirth was the first witness in Boone's defense. From Allan Eckert's The court martial of Daniel Boone was stated "Clad in fade gray lindsey-woolsey shirt and trousers, Cutbirth was a medium man in most physical respects. Of medium height and weight, his features were regular and undistinctive, his hair a pale brown and his complexion tanned. He smiled easily, showing even, white teeth that were a trifle to small. He was neither tense nor to nonchalant, but simply calmly alert. On advice from Sam, Daniel Boone had immediately recalled Benjamin Cutbirth. He established the fact that Cutbirth was noted for his veracity, and would never had colored his testimony in favor of Boone, even though a relationship through marriage did exist and despite the fact that Boone had saved his life. Benjamin Cutbirth was shown to be a man of high moral character, a very honorable man." Boone was found innocent, promoted to Major and Callaway was killed by Indians two years later. It was about this time that Benjamin lost his land in Kentucky of 500 acres and so late in 1778 decided to move his family back to North Carolina, however this time to the Blue Ridge Mountains area. Which was situated on the South Fork of the New River some three or four miles above an area called "Oldfields" which was an old Indian camp and now the area is near the present day boarders of Ashe and Wilkes counties. DAR papers of Ruth Shields of Canton, IL said Benjamin was in the Rev. War and she went into DAR on his service. Following proof of his service: " Pioneer and Soldiers of VA". "Daniel Boone At The Head OF Thirty Enlisted Men", some of them the best Backwoodsmen ("LongHunters") in the Country were sent ahead to mark the path thru the forest to Kentucky River and there establish a Capitol for the New Colony, the 8th name on the list was Benjamin

Notes HUSBAND - Benjamin Cutbirth Jr. (Continued) Name has been spelled so many different ways: Cutbirth, Cutburth, Culberth, Culbirth, Cutburt, Cutbert, Cuthburt but believe Cutbirth is correct spelling. MARRIAGE1: According to researchers Benjamin was married first 1789 in NC, possibly Ashe or Rowan Co, to Salina Callaway. On the same day a sister of Benjamin, Mary Cutbirth md Elijah Callaway in Ashe or Rowan Co. NC. Believe them to be brothers and sisters. However no one in the Callaway family says Salina belongs to that family, and on further checking she more likely is not a sister to Elijah but a cousin. The Draper collection has stated in several articles that Elijah's children were nieces and nephews to Benjamin Cutbirth. That could only be thru the Cutbirth line but other indications were thru the Callaway line also. Benjamin and Salina was said to have had 8 children. Mary Cutbirth and Elijah Callaway was said to have md in Ashe Co. NC. MARRIAGE2: This marriage record is recorded in Morgan Co. IN. Benjamin and Catherine Crutchfield was said to have had 8 children. WIKIPEDIA

Henry Morgan

Sir Henry Morgan (Welsh: Harri Morgan, c. 1635 – 25 August 1688) was a Welsh privateer, landowner and, later, Lieutenant Governor of Jamaica. From his base in Port Royal, Jamaica, he raided settlements and shipping on the Spanish Main, becoming wealthy as he did so. With the prize money from the raids he purchased three large sugar plantations on the island.

Much of Morgan's early life is unknown. He was born in south Wales,^[n 1] but it is not known how he made his way to the West Indies, or how he began his career as a privateer. He was probably a member of a group of raiders led by Sir Christopher Myngs in the early 1660s. Morgan became a close friend of Sir Thomas Modyford, the Governor of Jamaica. When diplomatic relations between the Kingdom of England and Spain worsened in 1667, Modyford gave Morgan a letter of marque, a licence to attack and seize Spanish vessels. Morgan subsequently conducted successful and highly lucrative raids on Puerto Principe (now Camagüey in modern Cuba) and Porto Bello (in modern Panama). In 1668 he sailed for Maracaibo and Gibraltar, both on Lake Maracaibo in modern-day Venezuela. He raided and plundered both cities before destroying a large Spanish squadron as he escaped.

In 1671 Morgan attacked Panama City, landing on the Caribbean coast and traversing the isthmus before he attacked the city, which was on the Pacific coast. The battle was a rout, although the privateers profited less than in other raids. To appease the Spanish, with whom the English had signed a peace treaty, Morgan was arrested and summoned to London in 1672, but was treated as a hero by the general populace and the leading figures of government and royalty including Charles II.

Morgan was appointed a Knight Bachelor in November 1674 and returned to Jamaica shortly afterward to serve as the territory's Lieutenant Governor. He served on the Assembly of Jamaica until 1683 and on three occasions he acted as Governor of Jamaica in the absence of the post-holder. A memoir published by Alexandre Exquemelin, a former shipmate of Morgan's, accused the privateer of widespread torture and other offences; Morgan brought a libel suit against the book's English publishers and won, although the black picture

Early life (1635–1660)

Henry Morgan was born around 1635 in Wales, either in Llanrumney, Glamorgan or Pencarn, Monmouthshire.^{[2][n 1][n 2]} The historian David Williams, writing in the Dictionary of Welsh Biography, observes that attempts to identify his parents and antecedents "have all proved unsatisfactory",^[4] although his will referred to distant relations.^[3] Several sources state Morgan's father was Robert Morgan, a farmer.^{[2][n 3]} Nuala Zahedieh, writing for the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography, states that details of Morgan's early life and career are uncertain, although in later life he stated that he had left school early and was "much more used to the pike than the book".^[2]

It is unknown how Morgan made his way to the Caribbean. He may have travelled to the Caribbean as part of the army of Robert Venables, sent by Oliver Cromwell as part of the Caribbean expedition against the Spanish in the West Indies in 1654,^[5] or he may have served as an apprentice to a maker of cutlery for three years in exchange for the cost of his emigration.^[4] Richard Browne, who served as surgeon under Morgan in 1670 stated that Morgan had travelled either as a "private gentleman" soon after the 1655 capture of Jamaica by the English,^[2] or he may have been abducted in Bristol and transported to Barbados, where he was sold as a servant.^[6] In the 17th century the Caribbean offered an opportunity for young men to become rich quickly, although significant investment was needed to obtain high returns from the sugar export economy. Other opportunities for financial gain were through trade or plunder of the Spanish Empire.^[2] Much of the plunder was from privateering, whereby individuals and ships were commissioned by government to attack the country's enemies.^{[7][n 4]}

Early career as a privateer (1660–1666)

It is probable that in the early 1660s Morgan was active with a group of privateers led by Sir Christopher Myngs attacking Spanish cities and settlements in the Caribbean and Central America. In 1663 it is likely that Morgan captained one of the ships in Myngs' fleet, and took part in the attack on Santiago de Cuba and the Sack of Campeche on the Yucatán Peninsula.^{[5][10][11][n 5]}

Sir Thomas Modyford had been appointed the Governor of Jamaica in February 1664 with instructions to limit the activities of the privateers; he made a proclamation against their activities on 11 June 1664, but economic practicalities led to him reversing the policy by the end of the month.^[13] About 1,500 privateers used Jamaica as a base for their activity and brought significant revenue to the island. As the planting community of 5,000 was still new and developing, the revenue from the privateers was needed to avoid economic collapse.^[13] A privateer was granted a letter of marque which gave him a licence to attack and seize vessels, normally of a specific country, or with conditions attached. A portion of all spoils obtained by the privateers was given to the sovereign or the issuing ambassador.^[7]

Sir Christopher Myngs, under whom Morgan served

In August 1665 Morgan, along with fellow captains John Morris and Jacob Fackman, returned to Port Royal with a large cargo of valuables. Modyford was impressed enough with the spoils to report back to the government that "Central America was the properest [sic] place for an attack on the Spanish Indies".^{[2][14]} Morgan's activities over the following two years are not documented, but in early 1666 he was married in Port Royal to his cousin, Mary Morgan, the daughter of Edward, the island's Deputy Governor; the marriage gave Henry access to the upper levels of Jamaican society. The couple had no children.^[15]

Hostilities between the English and Dutch in 1664 led to a change in government policy: colonial governors were now authorised to issue letters of marque against the Dutch.^[n 6] Many of the privateers, including Morgan, did not take up the letters, although an expedition to conquer the Dutch island of Sint Eustatius led to the death of Morgan's father-in-law, who was leading a 600-man force.^[17] were revoked and Lynch was appointed as the island's governor; Morgan still retained his position on the Assembly of Jamaica.^{[114][116]} Morgan had been a heavy drinker for several years;^[n 16] he received the news of the revocation of his positions badly and increased his intake of alcohol to the point where his health began to suffer.^{[116][118]} Lynch removed Morgan's supporters from the Assembly of Jamaica by 1683, and in October that year he removed Morgan and his brother-in-law, leaving the assembly packed with men loyal to him. In 1684 Lynch died, and was temporarily replaced as governor by his friend, the lieutenant-general, Hender Molesworth.^[119]

In 1684 an account of Morgan's exploits was published by Exquemelin, in a Dutch volume entitled De Americaensche Zee-Roovers (trans: About the Buccaneers of America). Morgan took steps to discredit the book and successfully brought a libel suit against the book's publishers William Croke and Thomas Malthus. In his affidavit he stated that he had "against evil deeds, piracies and robberies the greatest abhorrence and distrust", and that "for the kind of men called buccaneers", he "always had and still has hatred". The court found in his favour and the book was retracted; damages of £200 were paid to him.^[120]

Westminster, June 1. There having been lately Printed and Published two Books, one by William Croke, and the other by Tho. Malthus, both intitled, The Hijories of the Buccaneers, both which Books contained many false Scandalous and Malitious relations on the Life and Actions of Sir Henry Morgan of Jamaica Kt. The said Sir Henry Morgan hath by Judgment had in the Kings-Bench-Court, recovered against the said Malthus for Printing and Publishing of the said Libel 200 l Damages And on the humble Solicitation and request of William Croke hath been pleased to withdraw his Action against the said Croke, and accept of his Submission and Acknowledgment in Print.

Report from The London Gazette regarding Morgan's successful libel action

In December 1687 Lynch's permanent replacement arrived in Port George, Morgan's friend from his time in London, Christopher Monck, 2nd Duke of Albemarle. He dismissed Molesworth and gave Morgan an unofficial role as advisor.^[121] In July 1688 Albemarle persuaded the king to allow Morgan to regain a position on the Assembly, but the former privateer was too ill to attend.^[122] Hans Sloane, Albemarle's private physician, inspected Morgan and diagnosed dropsy; he also saw Morgan was drinking to excess and ordered him to reduce his alcohol intake, which was ignored. Sloane described his patient as lean, sallow-coloured, his eyes a little yellowish and belly jutting out or prominent ... He complained to me of want of appetite for victuals, he had a kicking ... to vomit every morning and generally a small looseness attending him, and withal is much given to drinking and sitting up late, which I supposed had been the cause of his present indisposition.^[123]

Death and subsequent events

Morgan died on 25 August 1688; Albemarle ordered a state funeral, and laid Morgan's body at King's House for the public to pay respects. An amnesty was declared so that pirates and privateers could pay their respects without fear of arrest. He was buried at Palisadoes cemetery, Port Royal, followed by a 22-gun salute from the ships moored in the harbour.^{[124][125]} Morgan was a wealthy man when he died. He owned three plantations, had 129 slaves, and his personal wealth was valued at £5,263.^[2] In his will, signed 17 June 1688, he left his Jamaican property to his godsons Charles Byndloss and Henry Archbold, on condition they adopted the surname of Morgan. These were the children of his two cousins Anna Petronilla Byndloss and Johanna Archbold. To his sister Catherine Loyd he awarded £60 per annum from his estate "paid into the hands of my ever honest cozen [sic] Thomas Morgan of Tredegar".^[126]

On 7 June 1692 an earthquake struck Port Royal. About two-thirds of the town, amounting to 33 acres (13 ha), sank into Kingston harbour immediately after the main shock. Palisadoes cemetery, including Morgan's grave, was one of the parts of the city to fall into the sea; his body has never been subsequently located.^{[127][128]}

Modern view

Alexandre Exquemelin's De Americaensche Zee-Roovers (1678) which affected history's view of Morgan

Rogoziński observes that Morgan is probably the "best-known pirate" because of Exquemelin's book,^[22] although, Cordingly writes that Exquemelin bore a grudge over what he saw was Morgan's theft of the bounty from Panama. His experience explains "why he painted such a black picture of Morgan and portrayed him as a cruel and unscrupulous villain",^[129] which subsequently affected historians' view of Morgan.^{[22][130]} Allen observes that, partly because of Exquemelin, Morgan has not been well-served by historians. He cites the examples of the historians whose biographies were so flawed they wrote that Morgan either died in London, prison or the Tower of London. These included Charles Leslie, A New History of Jamaica (1739), Alan Gardner, History of Jamaica (1873), Hubert Bancroft, History of Central America (1883) and Howard Pyle's work, Howard Pyle's Book of Pirates (compiled in 1921).^[131]

Exquemelin wrote that Morgan's men undertook widespread torture in several of the towns they captured. According to Stephen Snelders, in his history of piracy, the Spanish reports of Morgan's raids do not refer to torture being practiced on the residents of Porto Bello or Gibraltar – although there are reliable reports that it was carried out in Panama.^[132] The historian Patrick Pringle observes that while torture seems cruel and ruthless to contemporary eyes, it was an accepted part of judicial interrogation in many European countries at the time.^{[133][n 17]} Morgan always fought with a commission from the governor of Jamaica. In doing so, he was acting as a reserve naval force for the English government in the defence of Jamaica.^{[22][135]} As the Spanish did not recognise privateering as a legal activity, even if a captain carried letters of marque, they considered Morgan to be a pirate, something he firmly rejected.^{[136][137]}

Rogoziński observes that Morgan does not appear in later fictional works as much as other pirates because of his "ambiguous mixture of charismatic leadership and selfish treachery",^[68] although his name and persona have featured in literature, including Rafael Sabatini's 1922 novel Captain Blood and John Steinbeck's first novel, Cup of Gold (1929), both of which are based in large part on Morgan's career.^{[138][139]} Morgan and stories of a hidden haul of treasure also feature to a lesser extent in other works, including Ian Fleming's 1954 novel Live and Let Die^[140] and John Masefield's 1920 poem "Captain Stratton's Fancy".^{[141][n 18]} Screen

Henry Morgan Biography - Famous Pirate

Henry Morgan is today remembered as one of the most ruthless and notorious pirates and buccaneers who devastated Spanish ships and colonies in the area of Central America. During his active career between 1663 and 1674 he gathered substantial wealth and political standing in England and after the end of the hostilities toward Spain he retired and spent the remainder of his life as a governor of Jamaica.

Henry was born around 1635 as a son of the f Robert Morgan, a squire of Llanrumney in the Welsh county of Monmouthshire. There is not much information about his early life, until he reached Jamaica in 1658 and when he left his school in 1665. Some historical records claim that he was a part of an English force that managed to conquer Jamaica (although he was too young to be a soldier then, and was most likely just a passenger to the lands of the Indies). With the help of his uncle who was Edward Morgan was Lieutenant-Governor of Jamaica, Henry married his cousin Mary and joined English military fleet that was under the command of Christopher Myngs in 1663. Under a supervision of John Morris he successfully raided Spanish settlements of Vildemos, Trujillo and Granada. Toward the end of 1665 Morgan commanded a ship that was a part of Edward Mansfield privateer fleet. After the Mansfield became captured and executed by the Spanish, privateers elected Morgan to be the admiral of their fleet (this was later confirmed by his official rank of vice-admiral of the Jamaican fleet).

His first great challenge happened in 1668 when increased Spanish presence in Cuba became a threat to the England. Morgan and his fleet of 10 ships and 500 sailors were commanded to attack Spanish, and they did so with great success. However, plunder that was collected in those raids was not impressive, and large portions of Henry's army became demoralized. In an attempt to secure treasure for his troops, Morgan devised a plant to attack Spanish port of Puerto Bello. This well-guarded town proved to be tough battlefield for English buccaneers. After securing two of the three fort towers, Morgan devised a plant of using captured Spanish nuns and priests as a human shield in his final attack. This tactics proved to be successful, and he managed to collect impressive 250,000 pieces of eight from that raid.

This marked only the beginning of his notorious career. In 1669 he commanded fleet of 8 ships and 650 sailors who successfully raided and massacred the citizens of Spanish city of Maracaibo. A year later he launched his most ambitious plan - raid of the Panama with the impressive force of 30 ships and 1200 buccaneers. After conquering the fort at San Lorenzo he and his army traveled on foot through the tough jungle terrain that surrounded Panama. Although exhausted from hard journey, Henry Morgan managed to defeat Spanish forces that waited for his arrival. After his raid, city was left destroyed and ruined.

Unknowingly to Henry Morgan, Spain and England managed to secure peace between each other, and English military promptly arrested Morgan and returned him to London. Because of his high standings and reputation he was not punished in any way, but was commanded to retire from naval career. He then went to Jamaica where he lived peacefully and served as a Governor until 1688.

Sir Henry Morgan was a famous Caribbean pirate and privateer. He was one of the most successful pirates of all time. Although very little is known about Morgan's early life, he was supposedly born in 1635. Sometime in the 1650's, Morgan made his way to Jamaica, where his uncle was lieutenant governor. He soon married his uncle's daughter and began a career at sea.

In 1667, Morgan was commissioned by the governor of Jamaica to capture Spanish prisoners in Cuba to learn details of a possible attack planned on Jamaica. With ten ships and over 500 men, Morgan first sailed to Cuba and destroyed the town of Puerto Principe. Morgan then sailed to Panama, where he captured the fortified town of Portobelo. Morgan and his crew only agreed to leave Portobelo, and spare the city from incineration, after the governor offered them a large ransom. Morgan and his crew next sailed to their headquarters in Port Royal, Jamaica, where they celebrated. Morgan's exploits earned him the respect and trust of Jamaica's governor, who subsequently sent him on plundering missions again to Cuba and then to Venezuela. Morgan next planned an attack on the isthmus of Panama.

On December 15, 1670, Morgan and over 1,400 soldiers attacked and occupied Santa Catalina Island off the coast of Nicaragua before reaching Panama. On December 27, after a long battle in which 300 Spaniards were killed, Morgan and his men took Chagres Castle and then planned a major attack on Panama. On January 18, 1671, Morgan split his forces in two and routed roughly 1,500 poorly trained Spanish soldiers stationed in Panama. Morgan and his men left Panama with over 100,000 pounds of stolen goods and treasures before burning Panama City to the ground. Residents of the city were tortured until they revealed the locations of more treasure. In 1674, the Queen of England knighted Henry Morgan for his service to the crown. He then returned to Jamaica and became the island's Lieutenant Governor, a post he served for nine years before being suspended in 1683. Morgan died in 1688, possibly of tuberculosis or liver cirrhosis.

Sir Henry Morgan has remained prominent in popular culture well after his death. He is memorialized on the labels of bottles of Captain Morgan's Spiced Rum. In 1926, the famous author John Steinbeck wrote A Cup of Gold, a fictional account of Morgan's life. It was Steinbeck's first novel. Morgan's life was again dramatized in Josephine Tey's 1952 novel The Privateer.
